

Join Us for the First Annual Environmental Stewardship Film Festival

Documentaries and Expert Speakers

- July 8 Dirt! The Movie www.dirtthemovie.org
John Guardino, Agricultural Scientist & Local Farmer, Southern Sonoma County RCD
- July 15 Fish Passage Success Stories
Will Pier, Fish Passage & Riparian Consultant, Salmonid Restoration Federation Board
- July 22 River of Renewal www.riverofrenewal.org
David Leland, Environmental Engineer, North Coast Regional Water Quality Control Board
- July 29 A Simple Question: The Story of STRAW www.asimplequestion.org
Laurette Rogers, Watershed Education Director, The Bay Institute
Kevin White, STRAW Filmmaker, Filmmakers Collaborative

Details

Sponsored by the Maxwell Farms Regional Park Stewardship and Sonoma Ecology Center, we will show four documentaries on consecutive Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 8:30. Meet at the Boys & Girls Clubs of Sonoma Valley, 100 Verano Avenue in Sonoma. Documentaries are appropriate for teens and up. Please bike or walk; parking fee is $6.

Refreshments

The Boys & Girls Clubs will provide popcorn; please bring your own beverage.

Questions

Contact Julie Jehly, Watershed Stewardship Coordinator at 996-0712 x115 or julie@sonomaecologycenter.org.

Streams Stewards events are funded in whole or in part through a grant awarded by the California Department of Conservation and Proposition 50.

The mission of the Sonoma Ecology Center is to work with our community to enhance and sustain the ecological health of Sonoma Valley.

